

"My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved." Romans 10:1

On this First Sunday of Advent, we will pray the following freshly translated Collect (opening prayer):

Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God,
the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ with righteous deeds at His coming,
so that, gathered at His right hand,
they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom.

This first Collect of Advent is at least 1100 years old and is first used as an Advent post communion prayer in the old Gelasian Sacramentary. The prayer is in two acts, each inspired by Jesus' words in Matthew 25.

Ten Virgins Went Out To Meet the Bridegroom

Act one is the ten wise and foolish virgins, who "took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom." (Matthew 25:1.) This story was so popular in the early days of the Church that it was painted on the walls of a Baptistry in a remote Roman outpost in Syria in the late second and early third century. We see the virgins with their lamps lit (they were the ones who brought the extra flasks of oil) going out to meet the bridegroom. Several hundred years later, the Church adopts today's prayer which asks the Father to give us to resolve to run fourth (occurentes) to meet the Bridegroom, the Lord Jesus, when He returns to His Bride, the Church at the end of time to judge the living and the dead. But as the foolish virgins learned the hard way, we should not go out to meet Him empty handed. We have our lamps, first lit in our hearts when at Baptism when we were told to "keep the flame of faith alive" in our hearts so that "when the Lord comes, we may go out to meet Him with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom." But what oil shall we use to keep this flame burning until the bridegroom returns to lead us home? Today's prayer tells us. Our oil are the "righteous deeds" (iustis operibus) of our lives. All the virtuous acts you have done, all the sacrifices you have offered, all the prayers you have prayed, all the sacraments you have celebrated, all the crosses you have carried should be gathered up in your arms that you might run out to meet the Lord with the confidence of the children of God, your arms brimming with righteous deeds!

The Sheep and the Goats

The second part of the prayer is also inspired by the words of the Lord in Matthew 25, the story of what will happen at the end of the world. Recall how at the end of the world the Lord will return in glory upon a cloud, accompanied by His angels, and the dead will rise. We will stand before the Lord and be separated based on the way we have lived our lives, separated as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. The sheep will be gathered at his right hand and the goats at his left. "Then the King will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'" (Mt 25: 34) This is what the Collect today is longing for when it asks that we be "gathered at His right hand, [that we] may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom."

This prayer's about a world that needs to be confident in its righteous deeds and in the love of a merciful Savior. And when He comes, they need not hide under the couch in fear that He will find out about this or that! No. They could gather up all their righteous deeds and run out to meet Him!

Attention all Parishioners For the sake of clarifying any confusion or ignorance: the Church’s Canon Law clearly teaches (Can. 1108 §1) that for a marriage to be valid for a person who is Catholic, it must take place in a Catholic church before a Bishop/Priest/Deacon. Therefore, it is sinful for a Catholic to attempt marriage outside of a Catholic church, such as in a non-Catholic church, civic center, beach, etc., and by a non-Catholic minister judge, etc. It makes a mockery of the holy Sacrament of Marriage that Christ instituted for His Faithful and given to His Church.

Because the wedding of a Catholic outside of the Church is gravely sinful, other Catholics who participate in it or attend it are also committing grave sin. Their presence indicates the approval and support of sin, and gives scandal. Please do not hesitate to direct any questions about the Church’s clear teaching to Fr. Vidrine.
