

"My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved." Romans 10:1

Dear friends,

We've already arrived at the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Traditionally, this Sunday is rather unique; like the Third Sunday of Advent ("Gaudete Sunday"), the Fourth Sunday of Lent is a break in an otherwise penitential season. The vestments for this day can be rose, as they are on Gaudete Sunday in Advent, and flowers may adorn the Altar. This day is called "Laetare Sunday", and takes its name from the opening words of the Mass, the Introit's "Laetare, Jerusalem":

Laetare Jerusalem: et conventum facite omnes qui diligitis eam: gaudete cum laetitia, qui tristitia fuistis: ut exsultetis, et satiemini ab uberibus consolationis vestrae. (Psalm) Laetatus sum in his, quae dicta sunt mihi: in domum Domini ibimus.

Rejoice, O Jerusalem: and come together all you that love her: rejoice with joy, you that have been in sorrow: that you may exult, and be filled from the breasts of your consolation. (Psalm) I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: we shall go into the house of the Lord.

According to very ancient Roman tradition, serious penance and fasting did not begin until Monday of the third week before Easter (the day after this Sunday). Thus, Laetare was the last day before the period of strict discipline. It was not until later that Lent was lengthened to forty days, making a Tuesday into "Mardi Gras" literally in French "Fat Tuesday", the day people had to use up the animal fats in their houses. Laetare is therefore a refreshment stop on the pilgrimage toward Easter: think of water-stations along the route of a Marathon race. Together with the joy of approaching Easter, this Sunday is about the heavenly Jerusalem we long for, which is anticipated in the Church and the Most Holy Eucharist.

Again this year, I ask you to do all you can to attend the liturgies of Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. Leave work early, reschedule ball games, etc. Holy Week is the high point of our Catholic Faith and hopefully our Lenten practices have helped us to prepare well to celebrate it with great faith and devotion.

In His service,
Fr. Vidrine
