

"My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved." Romans 10:1

Dear Friends,

The end of October is already approaching...which means its time for our annual Bazaar in support of St. Peter School! This year, we are celebrating the Bazaar's 41st anniversary. Some of you can remember when it started 41 years ago...and others not so much. But I think that being aware that we are celebrating 41 years highlights a very important truth.

Think about all of the people involved during those 41 years: the different Priests and Sisters, the parents and grandparents who sacrificed and worked so hard, the generous people of Gueydan who donated money or items, volunteered time or help, and the many families and children who came to enjoy it. Many of those people have passed away and are no longer with us. They represent the selfless gift of themselves...with a view of the importance of the future. They accomplished a mission that was beyond their own interests or desires.

But what exactly was that mission? Local Catholic Education for the people of Gueydan! The 41 years of the Bazaar has made it possible for St. Peter School to continue its mission of more than 50 years of Catholic Education! So, while the generosity of so many throughout the last 41 years represents great selflessness, it was centered on something very concrete: the children of Gueydan. Still today, we are incredibly blessed to carry on that mission of Catholic Education here in Gueydan because of the goodness of the people in this community.

As I'm sure you've heard, the generous response of so many people for this year's Bazaar has been remarkable! From nearly 60 awesome auction items donated, to the hard work of the SPS Grandma's Club, to the many volunteering to serve, God's goodness and providence is once again made clear. I hope that you will be able to join us on October 30th for the Bazaar as the St. Peter School family gathers and celebrates. May the Lord bless us with beautiful weather!

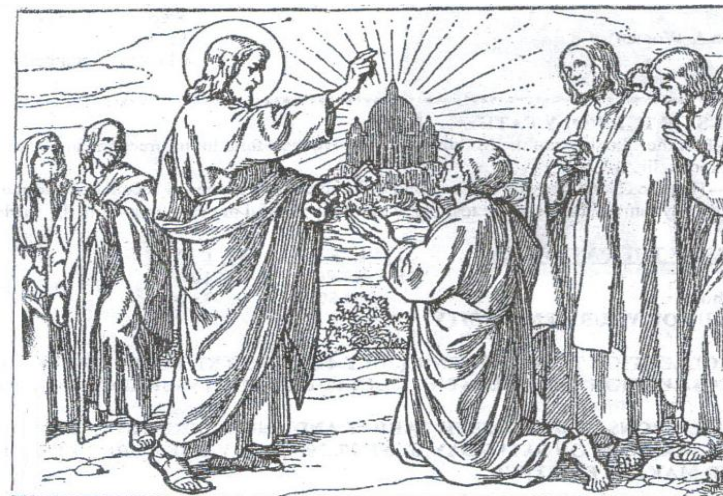

In His Service,
Fr. Vidrine
