

“My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.” Romans 10:1

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King...the culmination of the Church's Liturgical Year. We anticipate the culmination of all things on this earth when Christ will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and then take His place as the King of Kings, surrounded by all the angels and saints forever in Heaven. Our hope is to dwell in His Kingdom forever. Next weekend, we begin the new Liturgical Year with the First Sunday of Advent. Hopefully we will take advantage of this brief but important season that prepares us to celebrate the birth of Christ at Christmas. Below is a letter from Bishop Jarrell about the annual Come Home for Christmas program of the Diocese of Lafayette. With our cooperation, many who have fallen away from the Church and the Lord's grace can return!

- Fr. Vidrine

Dear Friends: Grace and peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

The promise of Christmas is a promise of joy to the world. But for some, the lights, the candles, and the hymns are bittersweet because a family member, a friend or neighbor are not with us. They no longer practice the faith. Or perhaps they cannot participate in the joy because they no longer walk with their brothers and sisters in the Church.

I truly believe that many such people would return to the Church if only they were invited and were made to feel welcome.

As part of our annual “Come Home for Christmas” campaign, I am eager to address a letter to any such persons inviting them to return to the Father's house where they can expect a warm and loving “Welcome Home!”

To this however, I need their names and addresses. Your parish will provide a form for listing anyone you think should receive this invitation. If you prefer, put the names on a sheet of paper and put it in the collection basket or drop it off at the church parish office. Your name will not be used in my letter. Please do not send names of those whom you think will be offended by such a letter.

If possible, go a step further. Try to make a personal call to such people and invite them to Mass at least on Christmas. Offer to pick them up and invite them to go with you to Mass. Let them know that nothing stands in the way of Mass participation. Let them know, too, that if their absence is caused by the thoughtlessness or error of someone in the Church, we apologize. Remind them, that the Church is not only composed of weak human beings like themselves, but of Jesus was well whose body it is. Tell them that the Church needs them and loves them.

Help share the joy of Christmas in this simple way with people who may need only an invitation to return to the Church. With prayers for your good health and for all of God's blessings, I am

Sincerely yours in Our Lord,

Most Reverend Michael Jarrell
Bishop of Lafayette
