

“My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.” Romans 10:1

Dear friends,

The Church has begun her annual solemn season of penance, which is expressed through prayer fasting and almsgiving in preparation for her most holy days: the celebration of the passion, death of resurrection of the Lord Jesus during Holy Week and Easter.

Through the various forms of prayer and penance we undertake during this Holy Season of Lent, hopefully our sinfulness will be stripped down and put to a slow death. In this way, as Catholics, our spiritual lives should reflect our liturgical lives and the Church's liturgical seasons.

Liturgically speaking, we lose things during Lent. Through the Sacred Liturgy, we are pruned. This is because the Church experiences a liturgical death before the feast of the Resurrection. The Alleluia, instrumental music, and flowers are the first to go on Ash Wednesday. From the 5th Sunday of Lent, statues and images may be veiled in violet. Traditionally Crosses may be covered until the end of the celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday and images, such as statues may be covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.

The pruning cuts more deeply as we move into the Sacred Triduum. After Mass on Holy Thursday, the Blessed Sacrament is removed from the sanctuary, the altar is stripped, left bare and exposed. Bells are replaced with wooden noise makers and Holy Water- water being so essential to life- is removed. On Good Friday there isn't even a Mass. (First no water ... now no food.) At the beginning of the Paschal Vigil, we are deprived of light itself! It is as if the Church herself were completely dead with the Lord in His tomb. This liturgical death of the Church reveals how Christ emptied Himself of His glory in order to save us from our sins and to teach us who we are.

The Church then gloriously springs to life again at the Vigil of Easter. In ancient times, the Vigil was celebrated in the depth of night. In the darkness a single spark would be struck from flint and spread into the flames. The flames then spread through the whole Church. The glorious Paschal Candle will take its place within the sanctuary.

If we can connect ourselves in heart and mind with the Church's Sacred Liturgy in which these sacred mysteries are re-presented, then by our active receptivity, we truly become participants in the saving mysteries of Christ's life, death and resurrection.

You'll notice the letter from Bishop Jarrell inserted in the bulletin this weekend. Our Diocese, in conjunction with other Dioceses in Louisiana, is beginning a massive outreach campaign to invite members of the Catholic Church who have left us for whatever reason to come home. Catholics Come Home is the name of this two-pronged outreach to fallen away Catholics. First, there will be the media campaign, which runs throughout Lent. On most of your television stations, you will see commercials inviting people to come back home to the Catholic Church. A second effort must be our parish's welcoming of people back. This 'hands on' part of the campaign will require everybody's participation. We will continue to discern how we might better do this and what exactly the Lord may be asking. But we will need you to help invite your family, friends and neighbors who have been away for a while to try out the Catholic Church again. Please make the return of Catholics to the Church a particular intention of your prayer and sacrifice this Lent!

In His Service,
