

“My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.” Romans 10:1

For the Love of St. Peter School!

Dear Friends,

Around this time last year, I began to address the needs of St. Peter School began a new column here in the bulletin with this title to highlight the importance of St. Peter School for our community of Gueydan. One year later, I am happy to say that we have met every one of our goals- and in almost every case- exceeded them! God is so good, and when we are faithful to Him above our own desires or demands, He raises us up. Our Lady teaches us that lesson so clearly in the Sacred Scriptures!

The time has passed so quickly. It's difficult to believe that we are nearing the end of the 2010-2011 academic year. While many people have remarked to me about the many changes that have taken place in that space of time, I continue to respond by saying “it will take time”. We must remain patient, optimistic, and faithful to our mission. When we do, the Lord blesses us beyond what we would think. This has been our experience throughout this year.

I give thanks to God that He has blessed the work of our hands. In almost every case, He has supplied for our needs above and beyond what we expected. A brief glimpse at our school's history shows this to have always been the case, and again, as our school faced struggles, the Lord showed Himself faithful. The 41st annual Bazaar this year was the most successful ever. I think also of other events throughout the year like the Saints play, the Birthday Party for Jesus, the Change for Miles Campaign, the Dinner-Dance, and the Mardi Gras party, and how each of these was more enjoyed and more successful than in recent years. One of the greatest things to witness is the rebuilding of the SPS family. The family is so important in our Cajun Culture. It is where great celebration happens, great joys are shared, and great love bonds us as one. This comes from our Catholic Faith being so integral to our culture. So, our Catholic School is no different. The faith binds our school community as one in love, joy, and celebration, and it's been great to see that.

We still have room to grow and continue to meet challenges that arise. One of our primary goals for the coming year is to increase enrollment. To continue to succeed, we need more students. Registration for the 2011-2012 school year is currently open. Please encourage families as you are able, and most importantly make the increase of the SPS enrollment an intention of your prayer. Thank you for the generous kindness expressed for our school in so many different ways! May the Lord sustain the good work He has begun and bring it to fulfillment!

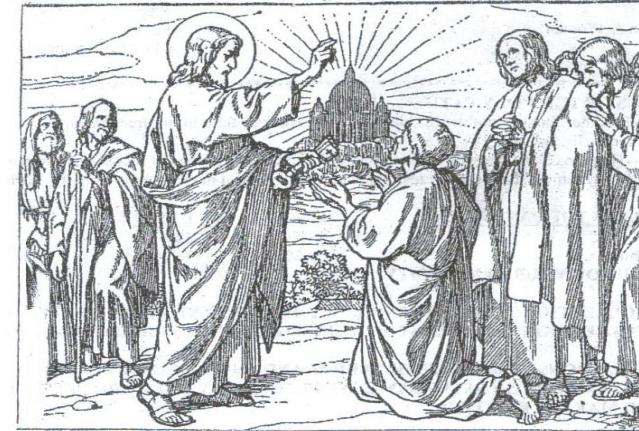

In His service,
Fr. Vidrine
