Lessons Learned from Noah's Ark

1. Don't miss the boat.
2. Remember we're all in the same boat.
3. Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the ark.
4. Stay fit. When you're 600 years old someone may ask you to do something really big.
5. For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
6. Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.
7. When you're stressed, float awhile.
8. Remember the ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.
9. No matter the storm, when you're with God,

Prayer for Priests

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Prayer for Seminarians

O Lord Jesus Christ, great High Priest, I pray that you call many worthy souls to your holy priesthood. Enlighten the Bishop and Vocation Director in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Directors in molding them, and the professors in instructing them. Lead the seminarians daily in your unerring footsteps, so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom, and heroes of sacrifice. May they be steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man, apostles of your glory, and sanctifiers of souls. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us. Amen.

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep to-night, and give Your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend Your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest Your weary ones. Bless Your dying ones. Soothe Your suffering ones. Pity Your afflicted ones. Shield Your joyous ones. And for all Your love's sake.
Amen

Virtues are formed by prayer. Prayer preserves temperance. Prayer suppresses anger. Prayer prevents emotions of pride and envy. Prayer draws into the soul the Holy Spirit, and raises man to Heaven.

- Ephrem the Syrian (306-373), Doctor of the Church, Feast Day June 9

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words. according to the will of God.
Romans 8:26-27

Now is the time of Pentecost. Before the Second Vatican Council we celebrated an octave for Pentecost like Christmas and Easter. It is a worthy thing still to remember because the birth of the Church is exemplified at Pentecost. It was through the grace of the spirit that Peter and the apostles preached the gospel and covered 3,000 converts with a single convert. By the Lord this is done. Today, we frequently preach, teach and live without the Holy Spirit in our lives and accordingly we have few converts. It is God the Holy Spirit living in us that really brings christianity to life within us and provides solutions to the difficulties we are facing.

We often believe that all there is to life is what we see. Consequently, we also view the teachings of the church and the gospel as dusty old words which need to be updated for the times. How can God's words be dusty or outdated when He existed before the the world began. He is timeless. All of history is before him in a single moment. God it was, who created the heavens, the earth and all in them. God created the visible creation that we see with our eyes and study with science, and the unseen realities which are more apparent to the angels. God's word applies to all of these eternally.

The apostles listened to the word of God their whole lives. They lived with Jesus, who is the word incarnate. Despite this, they were lacking in their faith. They were not lacking in education. They needed to grow in their faith through witnessing the death and resurrection of Jesus, and receiving the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

In Pentecost, the Apostles were profoundly transformed by God's grace. Jesus brought about this transformation in them. They seemed lost after Jesus' death because they trusted more in themselves than in God, just as we put more trust in ourselves, in science, in government or other human institutions. Like the Apostles we learn just how limited these things are. The Apostles needed to receive the Holy Spirit and learn to correspond with Him as Mary did.

It is one thing to hear Jesus' promise that he will not leave us orphans. It is another matter to know this through experience. In Pentecost, the Apostles witness God acting in them so thoroughly that they not only speak in languages which they do not understand, but a crowd of three thousand were moved to conversion through their miraculous hearing of the preaching. They ask, "What shall we do?" and are told, "Repent and be baptized...and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." (Acts 2:37-38) It is the action of the Holy Spirit that inspires conversion and brings it to completion.

As we try harder and harder to find solutions without God, and even try to exclude God from our society disorder, chaos and suffering increase. All the while the Holy Spirit inspires the faithful to meet the challenges of our lives. I am always reminded of the story of a town in the Czech Republic. They were farmers like we are, but they relied on their crops for food. One year the crops were failing and they were facing the possibility of starvation in the winter. At this time a mysterious woman appeared who taught them to pray to the Holy Spirit. This was long before the Second Vatican Council or the Catholic Charismatic Renewal (1100 AD).

When the people prayed to the Holy Spirit, they were filled with Charisms of the Holy Spirit. They witnessed miracles, and their supply of food miraculously lasted through the winter. They continued to live what they had learned after the crisis loving one another, praying to the Holy Spirit and being so overcome by divine love that their masses lasted for hours. This one very abbreviated story illustrates how God has the solutions for our difficulties if only we ask, and submit ourselves to him.

The apostles prayed to be filled to the Holy Spirit as Jesus instructed them. They prayed for 9 days until the promise of God came upon them. We have no less need of the Holy Spirit today than the the apostles did in theirs. I hope that all of us learn to pray to the Holy Spirit so that He can help us in our needs, whether they be instruction in the faith, overcoming falsehood, surviving famine, discerning the true way in the midst of a crooked generation or whatever else. May God be praised that seeing our weakness He sends us not only a avocation, but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit.

Bible Question

A religious lady had a fear of flying. To calm her nerves she read her Bible whenever she got on a plane. On one of her trips, a man sitting next to her snickered and said, "You don't really believe all that stuff in there do you?" The lady replied, "Of course I do, it is the Bible." Her flying companion said, "Well, what about the guy swallowed by the whale?" The lady replied, "Oh Jonah. I believe that." "Explain how he could have survived all that time in the whale," her companion asked? The lady replied, "When I get to heaven, I will ask him." What if he isn't in heaven?" the man asked sarcastically?" "Then you ask him,"
